

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FLORIDA SUPREME COURT APPROVED FAMILY LAW FORM
12.914, CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE

When should this form be used?

After the petition has been properly served (through either a personal service or constructive service), both parties must send copies of all additional documents or papers they file with the clerk to the other party or his or her attorney, if he or she has one. Each time you file a document, you must certify that you provided the other party with a copy. Many of the Florida Family Law Forms already have a place above the signature line for this certification. It looks like this:

I certify that a copy of this document was [one only] () mailed () faxed and mailed () hand-delivered to the person(s) listed below on {date} _____.

Other party or his/her attorney:

Name: _____

Address: _____

City, State, Zip: _____

Fax Number: _____

If a form you are filing has a certificate, you do not need to file a separate Certificate of Service,  Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.914. However, each time you file a document that does not have a certificate like the one above, you must file a Certificate of Service,  Florida Supreme Court Approved Family Law Form 12.914, and send a copy of the document to the other party. This includes letters to the judge.

This form should be typed or printed in black ink. After completing this form (giving the name of each form, document, or paper filed), you should sign the form before a notary public or deputy clerk. You should file the original with the clerk of the circuit court in the county where your case was filed and keep a copy for your records.

The copy you are providing to the other party must be mailed (postmarked) or delivered to the opposing party or his or her attorney on the same day indicated on the certificate of service.

Where can I look for more information?

Before proceeding, you should read “General Information for Self-Represented Litigants” found at the beginning of these forms. For more information, see rule 1.080, Florida Rules of Civil Procedure and rule 12.080, Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure.

Special notes...

Remember, a person who is NOT an attorney is called a nonlawyer. If a nonlawyer helps you fill out these forms, that person must give you a copy of Disclosure from Nonlawyer,  Florida Family Law Rules of Procedure Form 12.900 (a), before he or she helps you. A nonlawyer helping you fill out these forms also must put his or her name, address, and telephone number on the bottom of the last page of every form he or she helps you complete.
