

FORM J

Following are Examples of other provisions that may be included in the Decree. They are not intended to be comprehensive or exclusive. They are included here merely to demonstrate that the Decree may be drafted to fit your particular circumstances. However, if you feel that a comprehensive or involved Decree is required it would probably be to your benefit to consult an attorney.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED, by the Court:

That (petitioner/respondent) shall have the sole right to claim the children of the parties as dependents for purposes of taxation.

That (petitioner/respondent) will convey title to the parties automobile (description of vehicle), to the (petitioner/respondent) by the _____ day of _____ 20__

That the parties shall equally share the expense of the children's education beyond the secondary level, excepting any education beyond a four-year college undergraduate or vocational program.

That (petitioner/respondent) will convey any and all interest that (he/she) may have in the parties residence located at (address) by Quit-Claim Deed and that (petitioner/respondent) will assume any and all responsibility for satisfying the mortgage thereon.