

Instructions for Completing the Affidavit of Support Received

Case caption and introductory statement: Enter your state and judicial district (or county). Enter the CSED case number, if you know it, and the noncustodial parent's name. Enter your first name, middle initial, and last name.

Item 1: Enter each child's full name and date of birth.

Item 2: If there is an Alaska CSED support order, or another state's administrative support order, check the first option. If there is a court order, check the second option, and indicate whether the court order includes child support, alimony (spousal support), or both. If there is both a court order and an administrative order, check both the first and second options. If there is no order of any kind, check the third option.

Item 3: If you have received child support from the noncustodial parent, check the first option and complete the "Child Support" column in the table. Don't forget to indicate the year. Add pages if necessary. (See example below.) If you have received some child support, but you are not sure when or how much, check the second option and enter your best estimate (how much, and when) on the lines provided. If you have received no child support at any time, check the third option.

NOTE: If the custodial parent or the child is receiving government benefits from Social Security, the Veterans Administration, or another government agency, and the benefits are based on the noncustodial parent's disability or retirement, these benefits may be credited toward the noncustodial parent's support obligation. Please provide information about such benefits on this affidavit or in a separate writing.

Item 4: If you have received alimony or spousal support from the noncustodial parent, check the first option and complete the "Alimony/Spousal" column in the table. Don't forget to indicate the year. Add pages if necessary. If you have received some alimony or spousal support, but you are not sure when or how much, check the second option and enter your best estimate (how much, and when) on the lines provided. If you have received no alimony or spousal support at any time, check the third option.

Table: Start with the first month and year you were supposed to receive support, and continue through the current month and year. Submit additional pages, if necessary.
