The Criminal Procedure Law provides that presentation of a copy	of this order of protection to any police officer or peace officer acting pursuant to his or her special duties shall author such officer to arrest a defendant who has violated its terms and to bring him penalties may be imposed therefor.	ize, and in some situations may require,

Federal law provides that this order must be honored and enforced by state and tribal courts, including courts of a state, the District of Columbia, a commonwealth, territory or possession of the United States, if it is established that the person against whom the order is sought an intimate partner of the protected party and has been or will be afforded reasonable notice and opportunity to be heard in accordance with state law sufficient to protect that person's rights (18 U.S.C. §§2265, 2266).

It is a federal offense to: cross state lines to violate an order of protection issued against an intimate partner; cross state lines to engage in stalking, harassment or domestic violence; purchase, transfer, possess or receive a firearm following a conviction of a domestic violence misdemeanor involving the use or attempted use of physical force or a deadly weapon; or (for persons other than military or law enforcement officers while on duty) purchase, transport, possess or receive a firearm while an order of protection, issued against an intimate partner after notice and an opportunity to be heard, prohibiting assault, harassment, threatening and/or stalking, is in effect (18 U.S.C. §§922(g)(8), 922(g)(9), 2261, 2261A, 2262).
